Bennington Potters
The Publyk House—Vermont Dining with a View
The Apple Barn and Country Bake Shop

Thursday, October 11, 2018

See • Bennington Potters, world famous hand made pottery continues after 68 years. We'll be greeted and embark on a tour where we see the "hands on" approach to the pottery making process unique in today's world. Meet the potters themselves as they describe each step of the many processes. Following our tour we'll visit the Potters Yard store located in 2 historic buildings a 19th century schoolhouse and an early 20th century grist mill. Pottery, glassware, unique gifts and everything kitchen...

Taste • Lunch at the Publyk House featuring "Vermont Dining with a View", offering traditional New England fare in warm and inviting ambiance. Salad, Roast Turkey Dinner with Stuffing, Homemade Meatloaf, OR New England Scrod with Vermont Cheddar & Cracker Crumb Topping, Potato & Vegetable, Seasonal Fruit Crisp with Whipped Cream & Coffee...Delicious!
(Entree choice in advance)

Smell • Following lunch, we visit The Apple Barn and Country Bake Shop. We'll have a guided coach tour of their spectacular orchard with spectacular views of all Southern Vermont. The barn is filled with VT products, country bake shop, ice cream parlor and of course fresh picked apples.

Includes Cider Donut & Hot Cider for everyone!
