FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bristol, CT, April 20, 2011, The City of Bristol, through the Real Estate Committee of the City Council, is seeking proposals for the sale of surplus property at 446 Fall Mountain Road. The property consists of a 2.0 acre parcel with a residential home, built in 1925 on the property. The property was acquired by the City through foreclosure in March 2011.

“The main intent of the Real Estate Committee is to get property back on the tax rolls, into the hands of private interests where it properly belongs”, said Councilman Kevin McCauley, chairman of the Real Estate Committee.

For further information, contact the City’s Purchasing Agent, Roger Rousseau, at (860) 584-6195, or by visiting the City’s website at <http://www.bristolct.gov>.
