To the Citizens of Bristol, Connecticut

During this special season, our lives are filled with the spirit of giving, the importance of family and friends, and a sense of healing, renewal and new opportunity. As we prepare for these busy holidays, it is a time to reflect on the important things in life. Those things that enrich our lives, those things that are hard to live without; they are our family and friends. These are the true gifts of the holidays.

As we celebrate this Holiday season, I want to thank you for your support, dedication and commitment during a very challenging and unprecedented period. I am deeply grateful to all who understand the need for fiscal restraint. We will weather these tough economic times and come out all the better for it on the other side.

Let us also remember those in foreign lands serving our country, who will not be with their families this holiday. Keep them in your thoughts and in your hearts.

May the spirit of this very special season be with you, now and throughout the year.

Happy Holidays.

Mayor Arthur J. Ward
